Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's response received on August 12, 2005 in which claim 11 was amended added has been fully considered and entered, but the arguments are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Note: Claim 31 is canceled in light of the arguments presented in the Remarks section, lines 3 to 5. In addition, an Interview Summary is attached.

It is also noted that the applicant amended claim 11, however, no new prior art is necessary at this time.

The dependency of claim 13 is wrong because it depends on canceled claim 12. Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 11, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hiyama et al. (US Patent no. 5379757).

Art Unit: 2613

Regarding claim 11, Hiyama discloses an endoscopic imaging system, comprising an imaging device for imaging an object inside a body cavity (See col. 8, lines 52-68, col. 9, lines 21-26); a digital signal converter for converting an image signal sent from said imaging device into a digital signal (See fig. 1, A/D converter 27 and col. 27-39); a signal processor for processing said digital signal sent from said digital signal converter (See col. 9, lines 39-51); a discriminating signal appending circuit for appending a discrimination signal in relation to the number of pixels of the imaging device to said digital signal processed by said signal processor (See Hiyama col. 10, lines 11-21, col. 41, lines 61-68, col. 42, lines 1-7, fig. 23, and col. 24, lines 31-45, lines 60-68, and col. 25, lines 1-5); a compression circuit for determining a level of compressibility according to said discrimination signal appended by said discriminating signal appending circuit, and for compressing said digital signal processed by said signal processor (See col. 10, lines 9-37); and a recording unit for recording said digital signal compressed by said compression circuit on a recording medium (See col. 11, lines 1-18).

As per claim 13, most of the limitations of this claim have been noted in the above rejection of claim 11. In addition, Hiyama further discloses an endoscopic imaging system wherein the data recorded in advance on the recording medium is medical-field or patient data (See col. 62, lines 54-59).

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
